1. About JUE

The Japan University of Economics was established as a college specializing in Economics in 1968 and now specialized in Economics, Business, and Management. JUE currently has become a leading institution in accepting foreign students in Japan.

2. Features of Exchange Student Program

Through this course, students will be able to have:

- Japanese basic skills as reading, writing, speaking and listening based on intensive learning and cultural experience.
- Support to expand their academic insights on economics geography, culture and history.

3. Campus Information

(1) Fukuoka Campus

Fukuoka is an international city of 1.5 million people that has been chosen as the Most Livable City in Asia by Asia Week magazine. Fukuoka Campus is located in Dazaifu to the south of Fukuoka City. Dazaifu flourished in the 7th century as a political center, and this ancient town is also renowned for Tenmangu, the shrine to the god of learning, to which 650,000 visitors come each year. It is in addition home to large numbers of temples and shrines, and to the Kyusyu National Museum. The center of Dazaifu can be reached on foot from the campus, and from the campus it is a 15-minute train ride to the center of Fukuoka city itself.

(2) Tokyo Shibuya Campus

Tokyo's Shibuya has attracted keen attention from around the world throughout history. Fashion of course but also cutting edge businesses are concentrated here, and information is transmitted hence throughout the world. Studying in the world's most stimulating environment, Shibuya Campus will be a valuable experience throughout students' lives and careers.

24-5 Sakuragaoka, Shibuya-ku, Tokyo 150-0031 JAPAN

(3) Kobe Sannomiya Campus

Kobe, a tourism center in the Kansai region, is a port city that has since long ago been a thriving center for trade. In Sannomiya, in the center of Kobe, a variety of cultures have mixed together and produced a tangible international flavor for both trade and tourism. Come and study business in the international city of Kobe.
